

Press Info

Hi there! This info you can copy and paste as much as you want. Thanks for spreading the word about Affirmative Art

What is Affirmative Art?

Affirmative Art is a collaborative art-experience to identify what you want in life and build a community of support to Empower Your Dreams.

Why Affirmative Art?

To empower people's dreams, helping people come closer to their purpose and identify what they want in life.

What is the Affirmative Art Tour?

Affirmative Art is going on a tour, going coast-to-coast from Boston to LA, May 6th to May 29th. The workshops will be organized in over 21 cities, where people gather – e.g. art festivals, community centers, libraries, YMCAs, etc.

The tour will launch May 6th at Massachusetts Institute of Technology, where the participants will paint the tour van, Dream Machine. Final stop is Los Angeles at May 29th.

Who will join the tour?

Eirik Jarl Trondsen – Tour Manager

Eirik founded Affirmative Art in Africa where he has been living and working with non-government organizations and development for 15 years. He is an artist, entrepreneur, and SPURS fellow at MIT 2015/16.

ejt@affirmativeart.org

Claudia Paraschiv – Workshop organizer

Claudia is an architect, urbanist, and community-artist with experience in participatory art-making and design.

ccp@affirmativeart.org

Marcus G. Christensen – Social Media & PR

Marcus is an entrepreneur and web designer, with media and marketing experience.

mgc@affirmativeart.org